Special Collections

Literary Characters and Puppets

- ◆ The North Lake County Public Library's special collections of literary characters and puppets is aimed at enhancing the magic of children's stories through programming.

- ◆ These special collections include: literary characters, glove puppets, puppets and miscellaneous plush toys.
- ◆ Items in these special collections may be checked out to the following institutions for children's programming needs: public libraries, school libraries, private schools, preschools, and daycares. These special collections are not available for individual patrons for home use.
- ◆ Contact North Lake County Public Library by phone or e-mail to request an item through Interlibrary Loan. The book and character are separate items and an order must be placed for each item individually.
- ◆ Loan periods are ten days for special collection items and twenty-eight days for books.
