

Fall Coloring Event for All

A coloring event celebrating the fall palette of colors is set for Wednesday, September 21, 2016, at North Lake County Public Library in Polson.

Afternoon Session 2:30 – 4:00 p.m.

Evening Session 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

Due to public demand, an evening session has been added. A highlight of the evening session is live music (coffee house style) by local educator and musician Charles Lutz.

There will be the usual amenities, including high quality coloring choices in a relaxing atmosphere, yummy snacks and good conversation. Everyone is welcome.

The library is located at #2 First Ave. E. in Polson. Please call the circulation desk at 406-883-8225 for more information.

