FAMILY SUMMER READING PROGRAM RETURNS

Registration for the Family Summer Reading Program will begin Monday, June 6th! Kids and adults alike are invited to join the fun. There will be plenty of reading incentives and prizes, as always, along with the traditional Thursday morning activity programs for school-age kids. This year's theme is "On Your Mark, Get Set, Go WILD!" and we are ready to do just that!

NEW LITTLE FREE LIBRARIES INSTALLED

Four new Little Free Libraries are now in place! You'll find them at Boettcher Park, Mission Bay, Sunrise Drive, and LaBella Lane,

These outreach libraries, which operate on the "Take a Book, Leave a Book" concept, have been hand-painted by local artists LouAnne Krantz, Mike and Edna Lemm, and Jim Nesladek. Many thanks to all who have contributed to this project!

Montana author Russell Rowland gave a book reading and signing at the library on May 23. He presented his new book Fifty-Six counties: A Montana Journey.

Rowland, the author of several other published works, read excerpts to a great turnout of book enthusiasts.

Story Time kids had fun painting apple designs at the library recently. Here, Youth Services Librarian Kendra Mullison encourages their creativity. Spring Story Time has ended for the summer, but will start up with enthusiasm again in the Fall. Mother Goose Time for infants and toddlers will continue each Monday at 10 AM throughout the summer. And, remember: everyone of all ages is invited to take part in the popular Family Summer Reading Program!

We're partnering with the Missoula Public Library and the National Endowment for the Arts for the Big Read, which will take place Sept. 18 to Oct. 14, 2016. Watch for related events to be announced! The selected book is Love Medicine by Louise Erdrich.
