Bedtime Bounce! (Kendra Mullison)

The library's new "Bedtime Bounce" program for children started January 23rd! Kendra, our Youth Services Librarian, will be here each Monday at 6:30 p.m. with books and activities designed to help ease your young ones off to sleep.

Ages 1 and up and their caregivers are welcome.

Hot cocoa will be provided.

Bring your own pajamas!

Come on down and work the wiggles out with Kendra!

There's still time to take part in our Winter Reading Program for adults. Join us for this fun event, now through March 31st. Stop by and pick up your Bingo-style reading record (or print it from our Facebook page), and add some excitement to your reading. Prizes will be awarded in April.

Celebrate February ("I Love to Read" Month) with Adopt-a-Book

During the month of February, the library is offering its annual Adopt-a-Book program, an opportunity to "adopt" a book for children or young adults and present it to the library's collection. Community members can purchase a book to honor a special person or event, or to remember a loved one. All are hardbacks; each is $14. After purchase, a plaque will be inscribed with the wording of your choice and permanently placed inside.

For more information, call the library or stop by the circulation desk.

Adopt-a-Book is in honor of "I Love to Read Month."

LEGOs!

Our beautiful new LEGO table has arrived and so have several impressive sets of new LEGOs. Kendra is excited to be presenting an introductory party on Monday, Feb. 27 at 3:30 p.m. in the meeting room.

Watch for more information.

Weekend Wigglers

A NEW family story program, Week-end Wigglers, featuring books, crafts, and games will be held every other Saturday at 2 p.m. beginning February 18th. As always, it's free and open to all!

Good Turnout for Neal Lewing Program

TRUSTEE ELECTION

Are you interested in becoming a library trustee?

Application forms are available at the library or the Lake County Elections Office.

The filing deadline for the May 2, 2017, election is Monday, February 6th at 5:00 p.m.

Information about the open positions is available at the library. Please call 883-8225 or stop by the circulation desk at #2 First Ave. E., Polson.

Digital Learning Day

Join our technology specialist, Heather, for our annual Digital Learning Day!

The free drop-in event is scheduled from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Thursday, February 23rd in the library meeting room. Everyone is welcome, and refreshments will be served.

Heather will showcase a broad variety of electronic devices and digital library services. Whether you're a beginner or more advanced, there's sure to be something of interest. Please join us!

U.S. NAVY BAND'S BRASS QUINTET SCHEDULED

Mark your calendars! The nationally renowned U.S. Navy Band Northwest will bring its brass quintet to Polson for a recital here at the library on Friday, March 24th. The event will take place at 1:30 p.m. and is free and open to the public.

We hope you'll be able to come down and enjoy this remarkable opportunity.
