

The Big Read in Polson

North Lake County Public Library in Polson invites everyone to take part in the BIG READ.

The library is partnering with Missoula Public Library for the event, which encourages communities to read and discuss the same book.

The adult book selection is LOVE MEDICINE by Louise Erdrich. After reading the book, all participants are invited to attend the related events at the library:

- Thursday, September 22, 2016, at 7 p.m: Local book talk facilitator Barbara Swanson will lead a community discussion about LOVE MEDICINE.
- Thursday, October 13 at 7 p.m: Kate Shanley, a professor with the University of Montana's Native American Studies Department, will lead a program discussing literature and issues related to LOVE MEDICINE.

The children's BIG READ book selection is THE MUD PONY by Caron Lee Cohen.

- Saturday, September 24, from 11 a.m. to noon: Youth Services Librarian Kendra Mullison will offer a kids' program centered on this picture book.

All events will be in the library meeting room at #2 First Ave. E. For more information, please call the library's circulation desk at 406-883-8225.

The Big Read is made possible by the National Endowment for the Arts, the Missoula Public Library, and the staff at North Lake County Public Library.
