

Volunteer Appreciation Event Held

Local musician Neal Lewing performs for the annual Volunteer Appreciation Breakfast at Polson's North Lake County Public Library on Wednesday, April 26th. Forty-five people attended the event, which is held annually during National Volunteer Week. The occasion included a hot home-cooked breakfast, Neal's music and entertainment, and the opportunity for library staff to thank the many volunteers and community partners who contribute daily to the operation of the library. (Heather Miles photo)